(6) The Board shall publish the audited financial statements of the Corporation in at least two newspapers of wide circulation and on the website of the Corporation.

PART IV —DEPOSIT INSURANCE SCHEME

Establishment
and
membership

23.—(1) There is hereby established a Deposit Insurance Scheme which shall be administered by the Corporation.

(2) A licensed bank shall be a member of the deposit insurance scheme and shall insure its deposits with the Corporation in accordance with section 59.

(3) A bank licensed after the coming into force of this Act shall, within twelve months, insure its deposits with the Corporation.

(4) The Board may, by notice published in the Gazette, prescribe other categories of financial institutions required to be members of the Deposit Insurance Scheme and the period within which to comply with the provisions of this Act.

(5) A financial institution that is a member of the Deposit Insurance Scheme by virtue of subsection (4) shall insure its deposits with the Corporation.

(6) The Registrar shall inform the Corporation of any newly licensed institution eligible for membership of the Deposit Insurance Scheme.

Cap. 44:05

(7) The Registrar may, by written notice, revoke a licence granted under the Financial Services Act of any institution that contravenes subsections (2), (3) or (5).

Uninsured
deposits

24.—(1) The Corporation shall insure deposits of a licensed bank or a deposit taking financial institution up to the insured limits, as prescribed in this Act, with the exception of the following uninsured deposits—

(a) insider deposits;

(b) inter-bank deposits;

(c) Government deposits;

(d) deposits which serve as collateral for a loan over which the insured institution holds a lien; or

(e) such other deposits as may be specified by the Corporation.

(2) The Corporation shall cover foreign currency denominated accounts up to the insured limits as prescribed in this Act, provided that the insured amounts shall be paid in local currency equivalent.

Assessment of premium rates

25.—(1) A licensed bank shall pay a base premium as prescribed by the Corporation by a notice published in the Gazette.

(2) A licensed bank shall pay a risk-based premium, in addition to the premium payable under subsection (1), as follows—

(a) a bank whose core capital ratio is less than ten per cent shall pay a premium rate of 0.15 per cent of the applicable deposit liabilities standing in its books as at 31st December of the preceding year;

(b) a bank whose core capital ratio is ten per cent and above but not more than twelve per cent shall pay a premium rate of 0.05 per cent of the applicable deposit liabilities standing in its books as at 31st December of the preceding year;

(c) a bank whose core capital ratio is above twelve per cent but not more than fifteen per cent shall pay a premium rate of 0.04 per cent of the applicable deposit liabilities standing in its books as at 31st December of the preceding year; and

(d) a bank whose core capital ratio is above fifteen per cent shall pay a premium rate of 0.02 per cent of the applicable deposit liabilities standing in its books as at 31st December of the preceding year.

(3) Other institutions prescribed by the Board under section 23 shall pay premium at a rate as the Board may determine for their respective category.

(4) The premium shall be paid in the following manner—

(a) the amount of funds for which premium is to be levied on shall be based on audited financial statements of the insured institution;

(b) the audited financial statements in paragraph (a) shall be forwarded to the Corporation on, or before, 31st March annually;

(c) the annual premium shall be payable not later than 30th April through direct debit of each insured institution's main account at the Reserve Bank;

(d) in the case of insured institutions that do not maintain an account at the Reserve Bank, the premium shall be paid through a bank certified cheque or electronic funds transfer payable to the Corporation; and

(e) any premium payable by an insured institution remaining unpaid after 30th April, shall accrue interest at the ruling Bank Rate or any rate as may be determined by the Board.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, and subject to the approval of the Board, the Corporation may vary the premium amount, the risk based premium rate or the basis of assessment of the premium payable to the Corporation by insured institution:

Provided that the Corporation shall give a notice of not less than twenty-one days to an insured institution prior to the variation.

(6) An insured institution shall not charge the premiums payable under this section to clients in any form.

(7) An insured institution that fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable to an administrative penalty.

contribution

26. An insured institution that is a member of a Deposit Insurance Fund established under section 18 may, where funds for the category of insured institutions to which it belongs are not sufficient to implement the objectives of this Act be required to:

(a) pay a special contribution out of its profits before tax, a sum equal to its annual premium; or

(b) on written agreement with a Corporation, pay a sum not exceeding 200 percent of the annual premium payable by the insured institution in addition to the premium paid under section 25 on such terms and conditions as the corporation may determine.

Payment of dividends while in default of obligation

27.—(1) An insured institution shall not pay any dividend while it remains in default in the payment of any premium obligation due or special contribution due to the Corporation.

(2) A director or officer of an insured institution who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable to an administrative penalty and a fine of five per cent of the total dividend paid.

Prohibition of set off

28. An insured institution shall not reduce, adjust or withhold premium due to the Corporation on the basis of any set off or claim that the insured institution may have against the Corporation.

Determination of insured
amounts

29.—(1) The Corporation shall, at the beginning of each financial year by notice published in the Gazette prescribe amounts to be paid to clients of a failed insured institution.

(2) The Corporation shall, for purposes of subsection (1), treat all accounts held by a client of failed insured institution as a single client account.

(3) The payment of the insured amount as provided for under this section shall be without prejudice to the liquidation dividends to be paid to the client once the assets of the failed insured institution have been realized.

(4) For purposes of this section, "account" means deposit account, insurance policy and a claim.

30.—(1) Where the licence of an insured institution is revoked, the Corporation shall immediately inform the public about the failure, the coverage provided, the timeframe and conditions under which the Corporation shall make payments to clients of the failed institution.

Payment of
clients

(2) The Corporation may, within thirty days of the revocation of the licence, appoint another insured institution to assume the insured client funds of the failed insured institution where the Corporation considers it necessary to do so in the interest of the clients or the public.

(3) Where the Corporation is liable to make payment in accordance with this section, it shall at its discretion require proof of a claim from each client of the failed insured institution.

(4) Where the Corporation is not satisfied with the validity of a claim for an insured amount, the Corporation shall reject the claim.

(5) A client who is not satisfied with the decision of the Corporation under subsection (4), may apply to the High court for judicial review of the decision.

(6) The Corporation shall, make payment of the insured amounts within forty-five days from the date of the revocation of the licence.

(7) The Corporation shall make payments under subsection (6) through—

(a) cash;

(b) negotiable instrument; or

(c) making available to each client, transferred funds, to a new insured institution in an amount equal to the insured amount of such client.

(8) All rights of the clients against the failed insured institution shall, upon payment of claims of clients as provided in subsection (7), be subrogated to the Corporation to the extent of the payment.

(9) The subrogation under subsection (8) shall include the right on the part of the Corporation to receive the same dividends from the proceeds of the assets of the failed institution and recoveries on account of liabilities of shareholders as would have been payable to the client for any uninsured portion of his deposit.

(10) The Corporation shall exercise its powers as insurer to pay out insured clients of the failed institution independent of its mandate as liquidator of the failed institution.

Power to withhold
payment of
client's claims

31—(1) The Corporation shall, where it has reasonable belief that—

(a) insured or excess insured amounts were obtained through, or being used in connection with, or held in furtherance of criminal activities; or

(b) a client had connived with the officials of the failed insured institution, or had been a party to, or had knowingly benefited from the circumstances which gave rise to the failure of an insured institution, withhold payment of insured or excess insured amount until final determination by the Corporation rejecting or accepting the payment.

(2) The Corporation shall make the determination in subsection (1) within forty-five days.

(3) The Corporation shall be discharged from any obligations which it has under this Act to a client of an insured institution upon payment of insured funds to the client.

(4) The Corporation and another insured institution shall be discharged from liability upon payment of funds held under section 30 (6) to any client by the other insured institution to the same extent that payment to the client by the failed insured institution would have discharged the failed insured institution.

Limitations
of payment
claims

32.—(1) The Corporation shall give a notice of at least one month to pay to a client of a failed insured institution by—

(a) mailing the notice to his last known address appearing in the records of the failed insured institution;

(b) publishing a general notice in the Gazette and in at least two newspapers of wide circulation in Malawi; and

(c) causing an announcement to be made through at least two electronic media houses with national coverage.

(2) The notice in subsection (1) shall include the date and venue at which the Corporation shall make payments to the client.

(3) The client of the failed insured institution who fails to claim his insured amount from the Corporation or his transferred funds from a new insured institution within seven years after publication of the notice in subsection (1), shall forfeit the insured amount and all his rights against the failed insured institution, its shareholders and the receivership estate.

(4) The client or any person shall not commence court proceedings against the Corporation in respect of the obligation of the Corporation to make any payment in relation to any funds held by the client in the failed insured institution after the expiry of the period stipulated in subsection (3).
